We only have a few caveats to permanent membership:

Non-competing businesses

If an existing member raises a membership objection on the grounds of competing business interests, the CBC Committee will review your application and may place a restriction on your membership or decline membership.

Non-attendance

We encourage members to attend every meeting or provide a substitute to represent them and their business. As a guest, the substitute may promote their business.

Fees

There is a once-only joining fee (currently £55.00). Weekly membership is payable by monthly standing order (currently £55.00 per month) to cover breakfast and meeting costs.

Code of practice

Our code of practice and terms and conditions is available to all full members.
